Dear Sir/Madam,

I, [Your Full Name], am writing this letter to declare that I have no criminal history in India. I understand that a clean criminal record is important for many purposes, including employment, travel, and other legal matters.

I have never been convicted or charged with any criminal offense in India. I am a law-abiding citizen and have always complied with the laws of the country. I have never been arrested or detained by any law enforcement agency, and I have never been involved in any civil or criminal litigation, either as a plaintiff or defendant.

I am submitting this self-declaration letter to prove my clean criminal record to your esteemed organization. I understand that any false statement or misrepresentation in this declaration can lead to legal consequences.

I am willing to cooperate with any investigation or background check that may be required to verify my claim.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Full Name]
